

PREACHES AT FIFTEEN.

Philadelphia Youth Addresses Congregation at Tent Evangel.

A pale faced, earnest boy of fifteen yesterday preached to a congregation which filled Tent Evangel in Harlem. The lad, J. Scott Dawkins, who, despite his knickerbockers, seemed not the least nonplussed in addressing those mostly his elders, explained he had been so aroused by the Gospel he couldn't help preaching about it. Dr. McPherson, in charge of the tent, in introducing the juvenile exhorter, explained that Christ began preaching at twelve and Spurgeon at seventeen. He said Dawkins would return to New York to deliver more sermons.

STATEN ISLANDERS HOIST NEW SLOGAN ON SUBWAY BANNER

"A Subway To and Through Staten Island" Unfurled From High Hill.

A REBUKE TO THE CITY.

Richmond Gives Warning It Is Bound to Get Transportation Justice.

If the members of the Board of Estimate had been down to the banner raising at Woodrow Saturday afternoon they would probably begin building a subway to and through Staten Island at once. They might just as well recognize themselves to it. Sooner or later they are bound to bow to the will of the people of the biggest borough of Greater New York. Those people want that subway.

Where is Woodrow? Down in the old town of Westfield, and the banner was hung to the breeze at the top of the high hill at Foster Road and Stafford Avenue, from which hilltop, as all the world knows, you can see all the way from the Northern Lights to Sandy Hook light. The banner is the first of many that are to be flown proclaiming the want of the entire Borough of Richmond—a subway to and through Staten Island. That is the slogan of the Staten Island Civic League. Its thousands of members are working to realize it, and ready if necessary, to fight for it. Woodrow Local, No. 1, had the honor of being the first to raise the banner because its chairman, Robert T. Cone, is the inventor of the slogan.

BANNER SWINGS BETWEEN GIANT PINES.

Two tall pines were trimmed and planted on opposite sides of Foster Road, and the halves of the banner rove to them. As 5 o'clock drew near a dozen automobiles came up by ones and twos and parked along the east side of the road. Every car was full of citizens and citizenesses who are simply bound to have that subway, and the long rows of benches in front of Dr. Schermer's house soon filled to overflowing, so that at least one-third of the big turnout of Staten Islanders had to stand. They stood cheerfully in the good cause.

President Frank H. Brown of Woodrow Local on one side and a reporter on the other stood by the halliards. Mr. Cone, with two helpers, carried out the banner to the middle of the road and said "Haul away!" whereupon the men at the halliards quickly raised the great square of canvas to the breeze. There it hung, displaying its insistent motto:

"A SUBWAY TO AND THROUGH STATEN ISLAND."

The crowd applauded loudly. As the last handspikes died away there fell a deep silence. It was broken only by the notes of a solitary robin who carolled away cheerily—as many a robin carolled in the deep, tangled wildwoods of Queens, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn and the Bronx until the citizens arose in their might and compelled the City Fathers to build subways to them.

NEW BOROUGH PRESIDENT A MACHINE BUSTER.

Mr. Brown stood on the Doctor's porch, which was the grand stand, and introduced William Wirt Mills, Chairman of the Transit Committee. Mr. Mills admitted the banner. It was the first token, he said, of the determination of the people of Staten Island to get the subway which they ought to have. He congratulated them on the stand taken by their new Borough President, Calvin D. Van Name, who cast the deciding vote in the Board of Estimate against amending the subway contracts affecting the other boroughs in favor of the city. The promise is that we shall be a part of the five borough subway system, and Richmond will get its share in decent transit (to which it is entitled, since we pay our full share of taxes), but those promises are soon forgotten and the old conditions prevail. The little which we have obtained, namely, the transfers, has been given with a string attached, so they can be taken away from us at any time and put us to still greater disadvantage, to the benefit of other boroughs. However, nature has endowed Richmond Borough with advantages which have sustained her under all neglect and we have advanced wonderfully in spite of all during the last ten years. Given transfers to the cars and elevated lines and our promised subway, Richmond Borough would flourish and more than repay the city for its expenditures, through increased taxes and by helping to maintain the value of land on lower Manhattan.

John A. Lynch of West New Brighton—Transfers to the elevated lines would not only be a good thing for Staten Island, but it would be good business for the city. It would bring thousands of people to our borough, a percentage of whom would become impressed with our beautiful island and locate here. It would be small justice to a neglected section of the city. I appreciate what The Evening World is doing for us, and want to co-operate and help in every way possible.

Robert W. McKee, Eltingville—The granting of transfers to the elevated lines would be a great thing for Staten Island. We have been laboring at a disadvantage with the other boroughs ever since the subways were built, inasmuch as we have to pay more for transportation than the other parts of the city. I can conceive of no real reason why we should be denied further. Counselor Arthur F. Simonson, Stapleton—I am for transfers because we are not only entitled to them from the standpoint of justice but because we are legally entitled to them. The ferry has been held by the courts to be a highway, and the people of a city have a right of access from one part to another, and if we are situated as to make a bridge impossible, then we should be given a subway, a free ferry and, least of all, transfers. Jacob Sauer, Great Kills—Of course I favor transfers. It would be a good thing for us as well as the city as a whole. It would bring people to us. It would be good advertising. Sure we want transfers. Charles Lange, Builder, Stapleton—We have held our own in the erection of new buildings, despite our handicap of transit facilities, but if we were given an equal chance, and transfers will help a whole lot, we would more than hold our own. We would have a boom.
